

High Lift:

High Lift / Lift Clearance

A high lift /lift clearance door goes up above the top of the door opening and then by means of a radius turns back into the building. Track hardware causes the door to rise vertically some distance above the top of the door opening before it levels out into a horizontal position. Also known as High Lift Track, Lift-Clearance is the distance above the top of door opening to the underside of the horizontal tracks.